

Accredited Faculty by National Authority For Quality Assurance of Education and Accreditation

Group (A)
Fundamental of Nursing
Midterm Exam -1st Year 1st Semester

Total Marks: 20 Mark

Time Allowed: 10 min

Date: 8 / 12 / 2021

=====

Please All Questions should be answered:

Question I : Multiple of choice (MCQ) (10 Marks, 2 for each)

Read the following statement and circle the correct answer.

1. Hand washing is an example of
 - a. Surgical asepsis
 - b. Medical asepsis
 - c. Safety
 - d. Sterility.

2. Nurse measures a patient's respiratory rate is 30 breaths/minute .Which is the suitable term used for this patient
 - a. Eupnea.
 - b. Bradypnea.
 - c. Apnea.
 - d. Tachypnea.

3. Orthostatic hypotension refers to a sudden drop of ----- mmHg in systolic pressure.
 - a. 25
 - b. 35
 - c. 45
 - d. 55

4. The nurse measures a patient's temperature at 102° F. What is the equivalent Centigrade temperature?
 - a. 39° C
 - b. 47° C
 - c. 38.9° C
 - d. 40.1° C

5. What are the four main vital signs?
 - a. BP, O2 Sat, Temp, Pulse
 - b. BP, Respiration, Temp, Pulse
 - c. BP, Respiration, Temp, O2 Sat
 - d. BP, Respiration, Pulse, Pain

Question II: True or false(10 marks one for each)

1. Age and sex are factors affecting blood pressure	T
2. During measuring blood pressure nurse wrapped cuff too loosely	F
3. Diaphragmatic breathing is thoracic breathing	F
4. An abnormal increase in the respiratory rate means tachycardia	F
5. A febrile is absence of a fever	T
6. Core temperature is the temperature of the deep tissues of the body	T
7. When measuring a patient's pulse, the nurse should assess its rate, rhythm, quality, and strength	T
8. The site to assess the femoral pulse is a midway between the superior iliac spine and symphysis pubis	T
9. Susceptible host is a person who lacks resistance to an agent and is thus vulnerable to disease.	T
10. Disinfection is physical removal of visible dirt and debris by washing, dusting or mopping contaminated surface	F

Good luck